Dear Midway Covenant Family,

In order to truly regather with care and compassion, it no longer seems prudent to pursue our goal of regathering this Sunday, August 2.

There is a rise in COVID-19 cases in our State, and though recent announcements from Governor Inslee did not change requirements for Religious and Faith-Based Organizations, we believe it is prudent to act in the most caring and compassionate way to ensure the well-being of our Midway Family.

That joyous celebratory service of regathering will be postponed until our State is in a healthier position.

We encourage you to follow our State's Guidelines and be part of the solution. Together, we will make a difference. Paul's advice to the church in Philippi is very applicable to us today: "...in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others (2:3-4)."

Blessings on you.

In Him,

Ruth Hill
